

Spread the word.

People who become ill with meningococcal disease, including with type B, can go from being healthy to critical condition within 48 hours.

Are you protected against meningococcal type B (MenB)?

Routine vaccines usually given in childhood protect against meningococcal disease types A, C, Y, and W, but not type B.

Talk to your healthcare professional about getting immunized for MenB.