

Who should get immunized against HPV?

- 01 Adolescents and children as young as 9 years of age, depending on the childhood immunization schedule in their province/territory.
- 02 Adults who have not previously been vaccinated against HPV.
- 03 Gay, bisexual, and other men who have sex with men (gbMSM).

Talk to your doctor, nurse, pharmacist, or local public health office about getting immunized against HPV.